

I vehemently oppose any effort to increase the number of media outlets owned by any one company. It is un-American. It tramples Freedom of Speech. The rules we have now have destroyed radio on the Front Range of Colorado. Please do not lift the regulations limiting ownership. In fact force these large corporate media monstrosities to divest of the stations they own now.

Sincerely

Chris Caudill